Won't Halt Delaying Integration

Judge Says Granting Stay Would Prolong Racial Antagonism

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley today denied a motion to stay his own order of Saturday which suspended integration in Little Rock schools for 2½ years.

The judge said that to grant a stay would keep the racial situation at Central High School intolerable because too much time would be consumed in processing a Negro attorney's appeal of his order.

Wiley Branton, attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said he planned to telephone the U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to ask for instructions on how to obtain a stay from that court. He said the appeal of Lemley's integration order itself will be handled routinely. Notice of appeal has been filed here.

"don't know at this point exactly how this is going to be handled," Branton told a newsman. "I may have to go to the chief circuit judge's home."

He said nothing about appealing today's rejection for a stay.

The Little Rock School Board opposed Branton's motion for a stay on ground it would be in the interest of the Negro pupils, only, not the public.

Lemley, in a written opinion, which was issued an hour before a brief recess of the hearing, said: "To grant this motion and stay the enforcement of our judgment would to a large extent nullify our order in the cause since it will in all probability take months to carry the case through the Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court."

"And in the meantime, the situation at Central High School, which we have found to be intolerable from an educational standpoint, would continue," he said.

A. F. House of Little Rock appeared for the school board. Oral arguments took only six minutes.

The courtroom was nearly filled with spectators. Branton was the only Negro attorney present.

A stay by any of the courts, Branton said, would mean that the racial situation at Central High would be just as it was when the 1957-58 school year ended.

In granting the school board's petition for a delay of integration until mid-semester 1961, Judge Lemley conceded that "the Negro students in Little Rock district have a constitutional right not to be excluded from any of the public schools on account of race; but the board has convincingly shown that the time for the enjoyment of that right has not yet come."

Negro Leaders Claim Court Order Shocking

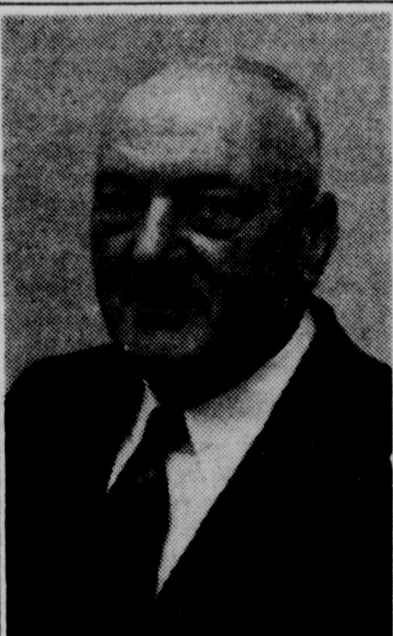

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Negro leaders today told President Eisenhower that court-ordered suspension of school integration at Little Rock, Ark., has shocked and outraged Negro citizens and millions of their fellow Americans.

At a White House conference with Eisenhower, the Negroes said the court decision handed down last weekend is being construed, rightly or wrongly, as a green light to lawless elements in their defiance of federal authority.

The views of the Negro leaders were set forth in a prepared statement, which was handed to newsmen after their 45-minute meeting with the President.

A. Philip Randolph, president of the International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, said at a news conference that Eisenhower made no comment on the court ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Harry Lemley.

Randolph added that neither did Eisenhower make any promise nor commitments with respect to a nine-point program offered by the Negro leaders with a view to

Rev. D. Funk Retires After Forty Years

Submits Resignation Letter to Lutheran People Sunday

The Rev. David M. Funk, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, submitted his resignation to the congregation Sunday morning. The resignation is effective Sept. 15, following 40 years service in full-time parishes.

Pastor Funk has decided to relinquish the full time parish service to accept special preaching and special assignments of the church. The Funks will live in Fairfield, Ia., where they have been building a new house for their retirement.

Trinity Lutheran made great strides under the leadership of Pastor and Mrs. Funk during their more than five years with the church. This expansion will continue under the new pastor.

Pastor Funk served in six parishes during his ministry — Oakland, Md.; University Pastor, Morganstown, W.Va.; Cincinnati, Ohio for 15 years; Muscatine, Ia.; Manly, Ia. and Sedalia.

In addition to the regular parish work, the Rev. Funk has served as president of two different Synods of the United Lutheran Church, W. Va., and Kentucky — Tennessee Synods. He also served on many of the major Boards and Committees of the church at large, having been elected eight times as National Delegate to Biennial Conventions.

The Funks express gratitude to their church people and to the city for having enjoyed such fine friendly fellowship, and say it is with a sense of regret they will be leaving "such a nice city and such nice people as Trinity Lutheran has always proven to be in their relations with us as pastor."

The Funks plan to leave about Sept. 15 for Fairfield, Ia., where their daughter and family live. In his retirement letter to the congregation, he said:

"Having given 40 years to Christian Service, "And now desiring to be relieved from the heavy work-load of a full (Please turn to page 2, Column 6)

US Newsmen Roughed Up During Riot

Done in Retaliation For West Germans' Attack on Embassy

MOSCOW (AP) — More than 1,000 banner-waving demonstrators attacked the West German Embassy with stones, sticks and ink bottles today in retaliation for an assault on the Soviet Embassy in Bonn last week.

U.S. newsmen, including this correspondent, were roughed up several times as they attempted to take pictures.

The demonstrators marched toward the Embassy from several directions. They seemed well organized. Suddenly they started throwing stones and bricks, smashing Embassy windows by the dozen.

Then came a barrage of ink bottles that splattered bright blue ink on the gray Embassy walls. Some of the bottles sailed through broken windows and crashed on the floor inside.

The crowd was in a vicious mood.

One segment of the crowd pursued New York Times correspondent Max Frankel into a side entrance of the Embassy.

Independent reports to London said Frankel's camera was smashed. The demonstration in Bonn, which provoked the one in Moscow, was to protest the execution of former Premier Imre Nagy and others who took power in the anti-Soviet revolt in Hungary in 1956.

(A similar retaliatory demonstration was staged Friday before the Danish embassy in Moscow.)

The demonstrations began at 9:45 a.m. and lasted more than two hours. The correspondents estimated the crowd of men and women, many carrying banners urging "down with provocateurs" at more than 500 as the demonstration began. This later swelled to near 1,500.

Two Injured Early Sunday Near Warsaw

A 1953 Pontiac coach was demolished and two persons injured when the vehicle overturned and rolled on Highway 65 about seven miles south of Warsaw at 12:30 a.m. Sunday. Only one vehicle was involved in the accident.

Durward Allen Scott, 20, Fristoe, driver of the automobile, was severely injured when he was thrown out of the car. His companion, John Edward Davis, 16, Kansas City Kan., received only scrapes on the back and did not need medical attention.

According to Trooper Richard Joos, Scott was headed south when the car left the highway on the left side, traveled approximately 114 feet along the shoulder, struck a highway spillway, swerved back to the right, angled 99 feet to the right shoulder of the traveled down the shoulder of the highway and along a ditch for approximately 165 feet, where it appeared to start rolling. The car was estimated to have rolled for another 129 feet.

Both Scott and Davis were thrown from the car.

Scott was taken to the Wetzel Hospital in Clinton in the Reser ambulance, where Dr. H. A. Bennett rendered medical attention. Scott suffered a broken right leg, dislocation of the left leg, and multiple scrapes, bruises and cuts.

Word of the wreck was relayed to the Yellow Cab Co. in Sedalia by a Yellow Cab out of Kansas City, which was passing the scene. The local company notified the Sedalia police, who in turn notified the State Highway Patrol and Sheriff Bob White in Warsaw.

Only Six Persons Die In Weekend Traffic

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Only six persons died on Missouri highways last week—the best record since last Jan. 26 when the death toll was held to five.

The highway patrol reported the figures today. The six deaths last week compared with 21 in the corresponding week a year ago.

They raised the toll for the month to 42, compared with 60 at this point in June last year, and brought the year's total to 380—an even 60 less than in 1957.

Kirschner, 32, an airman from St. Joseph, Mo., was killed instantly in a headon auto collision on U.S. Highway 71, about three miles south of Dearborn, Mo., early Sunday morning at about 12:15. Kirschner was stationed at the 4236 USAF Hospital at Whiteman Air Force Base.

Surviving are his wife, Betty June, and three children, Ronnie Lee, Trudy Kay and Pamela June, all from St. Joseph.

Pursues Lebanon Solution

Meets With Nasser In Cairo Sunday After Lebanon Trip

CAIRO (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld pressed his campaign to quiet the Lebanese rebellion with President Nasser and the government of the United Arab Republic today.

Hammarskjöld met with Nasser Sunday night a few hours after arriving from Amman and Jerusalem. He left Beirut Saturday after talks with the Lebanese government on their charges that Nasser has sent arms and men across the Syria-Lebanon border to aid the rebels.

Informed sources said U. A. R. officials would warn Hammarskjöld against foreign interference in Lebanon and insist once more that their government is not aiding the rebels. Nasser contends that the Lebanese crisis is completely internal, and that pro-Western President Camille Chamoun is seeking a pretext for the United States and Britain to send troops to his aid.

Hammarskjöld is to return to Beirut Tuesday and is scheduled to leave for New York the next day.

U. N. headquarters in New York announced that the United States was providing two helicopters and Sweden four light observation planes for the use of the U. N. observer group the Security Council has sent to Lebanon to check on any infiltrations from Syria.

In Lebanon, meanwhile, the U.N. mission planned to establish a watchdog team today in the strategic Bekaa border area despite go-slow warnings from rebel leaders in the area.

Observers turned back from the Bekaa Valley Saturday by Col. Maurice Brown, the New Zealand senior officer with the mission, denied reports the rebels had prevented them forcibly from taking up positions there.

Brown said the local rebel chief had told the U. N. officers they should not try to get to the borders too soon. A Beirut leader of the anti-Chamoun forces, Hussein Oweini, also said the watchdog team had been advised against approaching the border for its own protection.

Oweini said his forces wanted to cooperate with the U. N. group but could not guarantee its safety "in remote frontier areas where people may not understand the object of the mission."

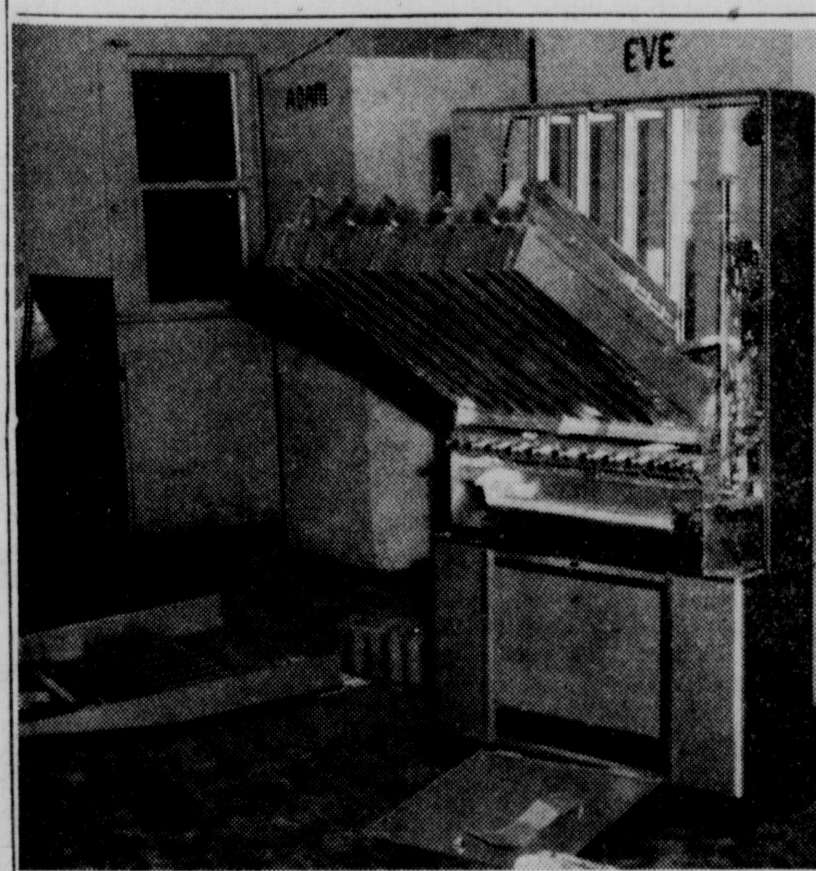

Priest at Tipton Named Member Papal Household

The Rev. Father H. J. Breit, pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Tipton, has been designated a member of the papal household, with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. This honor was given Father Breit with four other priests, Msgr. Flood, of Columbia, Msgr. Winkelman, of Rich Fountain, Msgr. Kaiser, of Rolla and Msgr. McCarten of Marcelline.

The five right reverend monsignori are the first domestic prelates to be named in the Jefferson City diocese since its establishment in 1956. The date of the investiture of Msgr. Breit with the robes of his new rank, will be announced later.

Rev. Breit has been a priest for 44 years. He was ordained for the Kansas City diocese by the late Bishop Hartley in Columbus, O., May 30, 1914. Having served as assistant in several parishes, his first appointment as pastor was in 1920 to Holy Trinity parish in Marshfield. After three years he became pastor of St. Mary of the Snows parish in Mary's Home, where he remained until 1938, when he was appointed pastor of St. Andrew's in Tipton. St. Andrew's celebrated its centennial last year.

Tex Varner Murder Trial Begins Today at California

CIGARETTE MACHINE DAMAGED — Thieves broke into the Jockey Club sometime Sunday night, ransacked the drawers behind the bar, pulled the above cigarette machine to the back dance floor, where it was ripped apart and approximately $28 in money and 300 packages of cigarettes were stolen. The thieves also broke into a bowling machine and obtained about $7. (Democrat-Capital photo.)

Thieves Enter Jockey Club; Money, Cigarettes Are Taken

Thieves made away with approximately $30 in money from the Jockey Club Sunday night when they broke into the cigarette machine and a bowling machine. Nothing else was broken into, although an attempt was made to break open the pay telephone.

It was also estimated that nearly 300 packages of cigarettes were taken from the machine.

Officers Blankenship and McDonald were making routine checks of closed business establishments on South Highway 65 when they flashed a light from the John Deere Implement Co., on the north side of the building, and as they started to circle the Jockey Club they noted the back door had been removed from the hinges. They immediately notified police headquarters, and Jack Austin

Three Persons Hurt in Crash By Cole Camp

Three persons were injured, two seriously but not critically in a one-car accident on State Highway 52 six miles east of Cole Camp about 5 o'clock Sunday evening. The 1951 Mercury sedan which was driven by Ralph Dean Heppard, 21, of Stover, was demolished.

Curtis W. Bland, 25, Stover, suffered a probable skull fracture, a bruise on the right back part of his head, and scrapes on his back. Jerry Antoine, 18, of 1705 South Montgomery, received a severe cut on the left ear, scrapes across the right cheek and eye, and multiple bruises.

Bland and Antoine were taken to Bothwell Hospital in the Eickhoff ambulance at Cole Camp. They were given emergency treatment by Dr. A. L. Walter.

Trooper Pete Stohr of the State Highway Patrol investigated the accident. Trooper Stohr reported the car apparently was trying to pass a truck driven by Warren Hall, Kansas City. The car traveled 234 feet along the shoulder on the left side of the pavement, then swerved sideways and rolled along the ditch sideways for 66 feet.

As the car rolled, Bland and Antoine were thrown out on the pavement, but Hall was able to bring his truck to a stop and avoid striking the injured youths.

Not Evident

You'd never know summer has arrived, to judge by the steam on the windows these chilly mornings.

Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday with widely scattered thundershowers likely Tuesday. Little change in temperature. Low tonight near 55. High Tuesday in mid-70s.

The temperature one year ago today, high 83, low 50; two years ago, high 93, low 66, with 14 inch of rain; and three years ago, high 86, low 70.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 60 and 77 at 1 p.m. Low Sunday night 52.

Ranch, Rodeo Man Accused Of Slaying Teenage Youth

CALIFORNIA, Mo. (AP) — Tex Varner's second trial for murder opened today with his three young children scampering about the court room.

The dapper riding ranch and rodeo man is accused of the ambush slaying a year ago of a 15-year-old boy, Larry Dale Irwin, who worked for a rival stable at the Lake of the Ozarks.

LeRoy Snodgrass, Miller County prosecuting attorney, opened the jury selection process by announcing the state will not seek the death penalty.

The panel of prospective jurors included 59 men and 16 women. Varner again came to court in his dude ranch clothes, including a wide-brimmed straw hat and cowboy boots.

His blonde wife said she brought the children because they have been pestering her to tell them what a vacation is. She explained this was an opportunity for them to be away from home and for them it would amount to a vacation.

The youngsters are Gay, 6, Dickson, 4½, and Vicky, 3. At Mrs. Varner's request, court attendants had placed a table in the aisle of the courtroom, next to the first row of seats behind the railing which sets off the section for spectators.

For a time the children scampered about the courtroom, particularly intrigued by the wooden knobs on the railing. Mrs. Varner finally sat them down at the table and gave them pencils and paper.

Every seat in the old Montauk County Circuit Court was taken as the proceedings opened, but about half were occupied by the prospective jurors.

Varner was acquitted in Cole County Court, April 4 of killing Irwin's employer, Edwin Boyesen, 47. Boyesen was Varner's rival in riding ranch operations in the lake resort area.

The twin slayings occurred while Boyesen and Irwin were inspecting fence on their range, part of Lake Ozark State Park. Varner had accused Boyesen of cutting fence and laying barbed wire entanglements on Varner's bridle trails.

Both trials were transferred from Miller County on changes of venue, Will F. Berry, Varner's attorney, said his client couldn't get a fair trial there.

This time the 50-year-old Varner faced trial under Missouri's habitual criminal act because of a term he served in Illinois a quarter century ago. He was convicted of grand larceny in Chicago in 1931 and served a little over six years in Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac.

The maximum penalty for first degree murder or as an habitual criminal is execution in Missouri's gas chamber.

Varner did not testify at an earlier trial. Defense witnesses said he was in a tavern at 8 p. m., July 5, the time state's witnesses placed on the slayings.

After the bodies were discovered July 6, Varner was questioned because of the bad blood between him and Boyesen. Varner told officers he had been carrying a high power rifle but that it had been stolen from his pickup truck a few days before.

Varner has been free on $10,000 bond, operating his riding ranch and living with his attractive wife and two children.

Bell Telephone Will Not Serve Area in County

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Missouri Public Service Commission has declined to force Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. to serve an area in Southwestern Pettis county.

Instead it ordered United Telephone Co. to make arrangements to serve the area from its Green Ridge exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Horsford and eight others brought the case, complaining they go poor service from United and the nearby Ionia Mutual exchange. They live about a mile outside of Bell's Sedalia service area in the small community of Manila.

But the commission found it would cost Bell about $9,920 to extend its lines to the area. It told United to sign up the 69 customers who have indicated they want service there. They will pay $205 a year, or a pro rated lesser amount if more customers go on the lines.

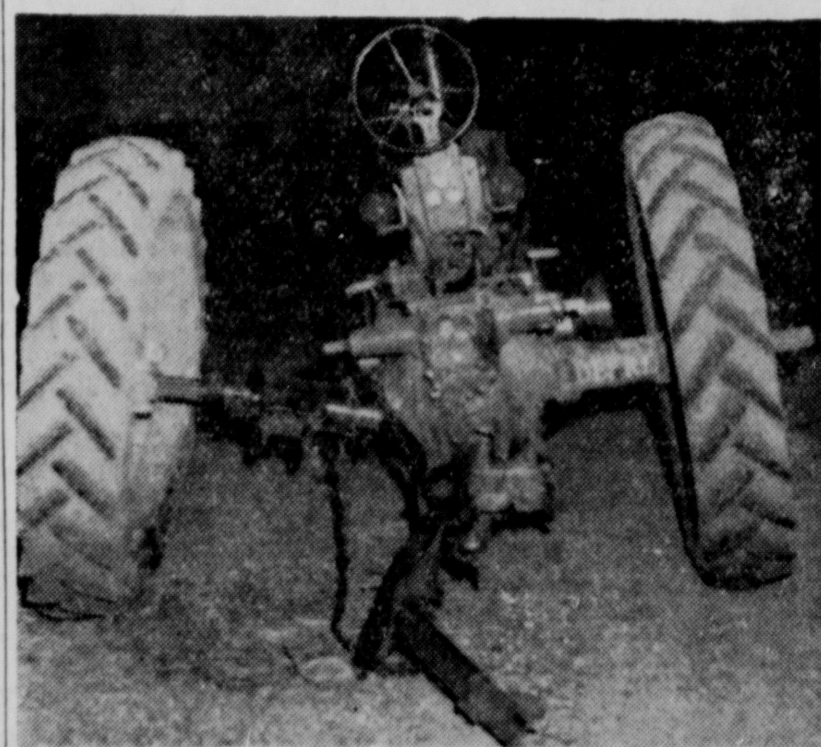

More Rain Predicted

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Skies cleared over Missouri today and the bright sun brought temperatures up from low points which came close to setting records over the weekend.

Highs of 75 to 78 were predicted for today.

Skies are expected to turn partly cloudy late today and tonight and a band of scattered thundershowers will move across Missouri from the west tonight and Tuesday.

Local Paperboys Enjoy KC Visit Despite Weather

Blissfully unaware of possible tornado weather, five Sedalia newspaperboys thoroughly enjoyed every minute of pre-game activity at the Kansas City Athletic-Boston Red Sox baseball game yesterday afternoon as guests of The Sedalia Democrat.

They arrived at the ball park in time for pre-game warm ups, and while the infield was being covered due to light rain falling, the only worry was if the game would be rained out. When bright sunshine flooded the field, the boys returned to their seats, wiped them dry with their handkerchiefs, and proceeded to watch the well-played baseball game.

The boys were winners of a city-wide newspaperboy contest conducted by The Democrat. In addition to the ball game, they also attended church services, visited Fairland Park, and the Zoo at Swope Park on their all-expense paid trip.

The boys were Jerry Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Palmer, 2511 Dennis Road; Jim Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gardner, 2311 West Fifth; Kenneth Holman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holman, 1306 South Lamine; Berry Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cox, 670 East 14th; and Bob Barnes, son of Mrs. Muriel Barnes, 1210 East Tenth.

They were accompanied by Joe Forsee, circulation manager of The Democrat-Capital.

Accident: Curtis Bland, Stover, Surgery: Mrs. Francis Ellis, 2035 East Seventh; Mrs. Walter Kelso, Route 3; Mrs. Lola Sebald, Milner Hotel; Mrs. Viola Schuman, Cole Camp; Gary Sole, 912 South Quincy; Mrs. Dancy Romig, Route 1; Gus Rehmer, 1021 West 16th.

Girl Loses Battle For Page in Senate

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia miss who wanted to be a Senate page has lost her first skirmish in the War Between the Sexes.

Noma Shaw, 13, wrote Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) last week and asked about the job.

Clark wrote back the appointments are only for boys.

"There are numerous reasons for this including the fact that many times when pages must round up the senators, it is necessary for them to go in places where a female is not permitted," he said.

"I think they're being perfectly fair about it. I can see their point," said Noma.

"Maybe in the future, if more women get elected to Congress, they might be able to accept girls as pages. I sure hope so."

Garden Club No. 4 Holds Annual Breakfast

Garden Club No. 4 met at Flat Creek Inn for its annual breakfast June 13 with 23 members and two guests, Mrs. L. H. Hodges and Mrs. Minnie Everston, present. Mrs. R. J. Hausam, president, conducted a short business session.

Exhibit awards on "Romance With Roses" went to Mrs. C. F. Scotten, first; and Mrs. R. J. Hausam, second and third.

The book selected to be placed in the library is entitled, "How to Grow a Garden in a Shady Place."

The speaker, Mrs. L. H. Hodges, was introduced and gave a very interesting talk on "Roses for Every Dream Garden." She spoke of June as the month of roses.

The three essentials for growing roses, she said, are sunlight, good soil and drainage. Do not plant close to trees or shrubs and never plant a large rose garden as its care should always be a delight, not a burden. Always insist on buying dormant two-year-old, No. 1 grade plants, she said.

Mrs. Hodges named some of the best varieties and told of the disease and pests attacking roses and the best way to control them. Anyone can have roses in their garden, she said, even if they are not perfect. The rose, queen of flowers, should be in every garden.

Dedicate Parking Lots

Three years ago Bellevue, Ohio dedicated its first municipal parking lot in the business district. Streets were decorated, a band played, a ribbon was cut and a few short speeches delivered. Bellevue made quite a do about the affair. It was so promotional that people came in from the rural districts. Even I, a vacationer ten miles away, was attracted to the scene.

Now three years later Sedalia is on the verge of opening three or four new parking lots. They are among those provided for in a revenue bond issue last year which will be paid from meter revenue. Merchants and city officials worked for years trying to get these lots established. They were working on a plan when Bellevue had already built its lot and proudly acknowledged completion.

Lately a suggestion was finally approved that Sedalia ought to have some ceremonial when the new parking lots are officially opened. When the idea was first proposed it met with lukewarm reception. What's the matter?

Well, for one thing there was a lot of enthusiasm built up for parking lots in Sedalia, something that offered great promotional value to the community in attracting shoppers as well as offering convenience to the townspeople themselves.

But this angle seems to have been lost sight of lately. All we hear about the parking lots is the inference that they are a load on the city, that the antipacity budget is all shot to pieces because we went and bought parking lots. This tune has been played so discordantly that people's minds are being turned against a project which when completed they ought to promote rather than destroy. This is negative thinking of the worst kind.

If the city is going broke, let's not blame it on the new parking lots, let's blame it on ourselves for wanting free garbage, free streets, free everything—but don't raise the taxes.

And speaking about the anticipated budget revenue being short $21,000 of anticipated expenditures on the basis of using most of last year's figures for expenditures on certain items, let's look at a trend that may run the city fathers into further trouble if it continues.

During May only, the total police court fines was $2,815.00. That's $1,053 less than collected in May 1957. This is offset somewhat by an increase of $315.00 in the parking meter revenue for the same month. A shrinkage of $700 a month can ruffle up an anticipated annual budget.

Well, anyhow, the point we started out to make was—let's quit running down our new parking lots. Since we have them and must live with them, let's get all the promotional value we can from them if we expect them to bring in revenue to pay for them. That's our sentiments.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Ike Right Asserting He Needs Adams

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—To understand how President Eisenhower was telling the truth when he said he needed Sherman Adams, and to understand whether Sherman Adams was telling the truth in his congressional testimony last week, you have to understand something about the work of the cool, tight-lipped assistant to the President.

In an administration in which the President has been absent from the White House two and a half years out of five and a half, Adams is all-powerful. The Washington wisecrack, "What would happen if Sherman Adams died and Eisenhower became president?" is grim, but it has a lot of truth behind it.

Only two cabinet members can see the President direct—Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of the Treasury Anderson. The others clear through Adams. Even Secretary of Defense McElroy was kept waiting all afternoon one day last month to talk to Ike about the military pay bill, and then was barred by Adams.

Even after a cabinet member sees the President, he must stop at Adams' office afterward to make a report on what he discussed. This is one reason a "secretary of the cabinet" has been appointed for the first time in history. He functions directly under Adams.

As a result, government bureaus know that a call from Adams means a call from the man who is actually running the government of the United States. A call from Adams merely inquiring about a case before the Federal Trade Commission doesn't have to spell out what he wants. The official who gets the call knows. It's like a traffic cop getting a call from the mayor of the city asking about a parking ticket given to a friend. The mere inquiry is enough.

Sherman Adams, testifying before the Harris committee regarding use of his powerful position to influence government officials, swore under oath:

"There is no call of mine, no appointment of mine that I have ever requested to be made, or any inquiry that has been made by me . . . that has ever been intended to affect the decision of any official in the U. S. government."

To see whether Adams was telling the truth about this, or about "borrowing" the $2,400 Oriental rug, or about the "mats" given him by Goldfine, let's take a look at the provable record of Sherman's interventions.

Intervention No. 1—On July 20, 1955, Sinclair

Think It Through

—By E. F. Hutton

IN THE HURRICANE'S EYE—That's how I see it. Behind us lies the wreckage of two World Wars, plus Korea. Ahead lie the blasts of the Russian-Chinese Communists. We are in a lull between conflicts. No one who has any awareness of history doubts it. But we abhor war and would rather not think about it.

The people of Europe seem to have their heads in the sand. Those who are anti-Communist simply refuse to face realities. France and Italy, full of Communists, are soft with Russia. Trouble grows in the Middle East.

Realists believe that war is certain. When? No one outside the Kremlin knows that. Probably not for a few years. Maybe it will be just a continuation of the cold war which will liquidate our savings through inflation. Then we'll be in real trouble. Food will be tightly restricted and our $'s cut to ribbons.

What can we do about it? We can do something. We can rediscover a love for our land and prepare a place in the country. After the next war the only property worth owning will be tangible property—productive land, factories, and useful goods of all kinds. Wealth in the form of paper promises will dwindle—bonds, mortgages, Social Security, pensions, annuities—like Confederate bonds and money after Appomattox.

Only those who look ahead with the eyes of stark realism will survive the coming hurricane. But, by God's grace, it may be deflected.

Thought For Today

And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord, thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul.—Deut. 10:12.

True religion is the life we live; not the creed we profess.—J. F. Wright.

Ike Has Received Thousands in Gifts

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower himself has set an example for Sherman Adams and all other government employees in accepting gifts. He has received for his personal use gifts totaling thousands of dollars.

He tried, in his news conference last week, to say when it is and isn't all right for a man in public office to accept gifts. The line he drew was far from sharp or distinct.

Maybe such a line can't be drawn. But because it hasn't been drawn both Eisenhower and Adams, his chief assistant, find themselves in contradictory positions.

If a clear line can't be drawn it would seem any man in public office should lean over backwards—way over backwards—to avoid doing anything which might embarrass him or the government or cause suspicion.

This is what Eisenhower said: "The circumstances surrounding the innocent receipt by a public official of any gifts are therefore important, so that the public may clearly distinguish between innocent and guilty action."

"Among these circumstances are the character and reputation of the individual, the record of his subsequent actions, and evidence of intent or lack of intent to exert undue influence."

But this explanation overlooks some very human and subtle questions:

1. Would a man in public office, intentionally or not, be more favorably inclined to do something or decide something or use his influence for a person who gives him something than for one who doesn't?

2. Should a man in public office

—for fear of appearing to return a favor—let himself be in the position of refusing to do for an individual who gave him a gift something he would freely do for a stranger?

A man in public office could easily avoid both dilemmas—dilemmas with which he should never have to be confronted—by refusing gifts from anyone who has or might have any business with the government.

When Bernard Goldfine, Adams' gift-giving friend, a businessman, got into trouble with a federal agency, he went to Adams in the White House to find out why. Adams got the information for him, information which a House subcommittee lawyer said it was against the law to reveal.

Then Adams offered this contradictory explanation of his conduct:

He said what he did for Goldfine—getting the information from the agency—was the kind of routine thing he or his staff would do for anyone who came to him. But at the same time he conceded maybe his judgment was bad.

Several years ago Eisenhower said: "I can't believe anybody on my staff would ever be guilty of an indiscretion. But if anything came to my attention of that kind . . . that individual would be gone."

At his news conference Eisenhower, while describing Adams as "imprudent," announced at the same time he would keep him because "I need him."

Eisenhower certainly has needed Adams. It's because of Adams' long and dedicated hours at his desk—taking a lot of the load off Eisenhower—that Eisenhower has had so much time to himself, including time for golf.

The Mature Parent

Parents Don't Need United Front For Discipline

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Mike's father first met Mike's mother at the funeral of a friend's grandmother. Noting her composed and gentle manner toward his friend's grieving family, he said to himself, "I am going to marry that girl."

Within several months he did. For it was his nature to work so hard at what he decided to do that he usually got it done.

One day seven years later he was down in the cellar working on some kitchen shelves for his wife. Mike disturbed him by snapping his steel measuring tape in and out of its container. After he had disobeyed an order to leave it alone, his father hit him, shouting, "Get out of here! Go play somewhere else!"

Crying, Mike sought his mother to complain of the slap.

She didn't endorse it. As she didn't possess her husband's driving nature, she couldn't feel his impatience with Mike's disturbing behavior. And she didn't pretend she did.

However, she was in love with Mike's father. Just because his driving nature differed from her composed one. So instead of trying to give Mike a united front of parental truth, she gave him something truer and more helpful—her loving understanding of her husband's different nature.

She said, "Daddy is a person who works very hard at anything he does. He wasn't mad at you but at having his work interrupted. Why don't you wait till he's finished my shelves—and then try asking him to let you play with his measuring tape?"

If parents love each other, they feel no need to demand that each endorse every action that the other takes toward children. Instead, they trust each other to understand their actions—and make the actions understandable to children who resent them because they don't understand them.

If a child needed parents of identical natures, he would not have a man and a woman, for father and mother. Our efforts to give him a united front in discipline not only violates parents' individuality but denies the child important experience with the different natures of man and woman.

For parents who feel obliged to endorse everything the other does, it's helpful to recognize mutual domination in their arrangement instead of fooling themselves by calling it "loyalty" and "love."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.

The imagination is that part of the thinking process which makes it possible for people to picture the unseen or to understand an idea which is explained by another part of the mind. The imagination can extend itself into the realm of the fantastic. It can similarly limit itself to narrow pictures of simple design.

Some place between the extremely fantastic and the memory of simple reflexes is the area in which man uses his experiences for foundation building and for logical flights into the unknown. The creative mind carries one, step by step, beyond personal experience and relates many dissociated things one to another. Some people find it easy to extend themselves far into the unknown while others hesitate to venture far from their tried and proven experience.

If we are going to understand God we must venture forth into the depths of thought. The deeper we can dig and the higher we can build in the imaginative process of the spiritual, the closer we can come to knowing God.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Patrol Airplanes Used 86 Hours By Officials

State highway patrol planes have been used for 86 hours in the last five months to transport state officials around the state.

The patrol maintains three airplanes for use in directing traffic, manhunt and rescue work. However, the work has been interrupted by the taxi service which has kept the patrol planes occupied for 86 hours and 25 minutes from January 1 to June 1 this year.

The patrol's single engine aircraft costs about $13 an hour to operate and the twin-motored plane costs around $32 an hour to keep in the air—exclusive of the pilot's time. The twin engine plane was used 27 hours and five minutes for trips by state officials and the single engine planes were used 59 hours and 20 minutes. The cost to the state for the trips by state officials in patrol planes was about $1,630—not counting time spent by patrol pilots in flying the trips.

The three planes were used 39 times in the five month period by the governor, Mrs. Blair, Lt. Gov. Long and Mrs. Long and their daughter; Attorney General John M. Dalton; State Senators Albert M. Spradling (D-Cape Girardeau); Edgar Brancato (D-Kansas City); Vincent Baker (R-Kansas City); Representatives William Turpin (D-Pike county); Paul Berra (D-St. Louis) and B. H. Stone (R-Madison county); James Kelley, executive secretary to the governor; Frank Iuen, legal secretary to the governor; Judge Sam Blair, the governor's brother; Maxwell Casey, husband of the governor's private secretary, and former state senator Francis Smith of St. Joseph, a member of the mental health commission.

The governor and lieutenant governor have defended the use of the patrol airplanes as being for "official business."

Mansion Repairs To Cost $44,535

Repairs underway at the governor's mansion in Jefferson City will cost more than the entire building when it was constructed some 37 years ago.

Gov. and Mrs. James T. Blair plan to move into the mansion sometime this fall. The building has been unoccupied since the end of Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's term.

Mrs. Blair is philosophical about moving into the old mansion. "One has to take life in its stride," she told the Missouri Press association. She added that life in the ancient mansion "should be very interesting."

Air conditioning is being installed in three upstairs rooms, two bedrooms and a living room are being redecorated, a small kitchen has been built, and defective plumbing is being replaced.

Ralph McSweeney, state director of public buildings, said the work will cost $44,535 "but it may go over that." He said workmen are finding more and more repairs necessary as they proceed. At one point, it was found that a wall supporting the upper story had been removed for a double doorway. It was necessary to put in a steel beam to prevent any danger of the upper story dropping.

Schnell Construction company, Jefferson City, has the contract for plumbing and electrical repair, alteration and redecoration of the private living quarters and construction of an elevator shaft. This work will cost $28,835. Installation of the elevator from the basement 49 feet up to the second floor will take another $10,000 and the five ton air conditioning system will cost another $5,700.

McSweeney said the repairs are being paid out of an appropriation made to his office for maintenance and repair of state buildings. Another $40,000 for repair of the mansion will be available July 1.

The governor said he decided to move to the mansion after being criticized because he preferred to reside in his own Jefferson City home. Blair said he may sell or rent his private home after moving.

The mansion was constructed in 1871 with a state appropriation of $50,000. Architects have estimated that it would take around $500,000 to either restore the present mansion to its original condition or to build an equivalent mansion.

Juvenile Code New OK If Not From Courts

Newspapers which print information about juvenile delinquents needn't fear prosecution unless they have received the facts from juvenile court records or peace officers' files without authority.

That's the ruling of the attorney general's office and it should help clear some of the air around the new juvenile code. The code doesn't consider juveniles under 17 as law breakers and prohibits publication of their names or case histories unless a juvenile judge gives the authority.

The attorney general, however, ruled that as long as newspapers get their information from private sources and not from official records they are not liable for prosecution. W. R. Nelson, director of legislative research, is the man who drew up the juvenile code for the legislature. He stated previously that he believed newspapers could be cited for contempt for printing stories of juvenile cases regardless of the source.

The ruling was made for C. M. Hulen, Jr., Randolph county prosecutor. It stated that prohibitions against printing information about juvenile delinquents referred only to information secured directly or indirectly from juvenile records. "To hold otherwise might lead to ridiculous results," the ruling said.

SHORT SNORTS: A new air conditioning system is being installed in the office of Lt. Gov. Edward V. Long in the state capitol at the cost of $3,652. . . We're sorry, but we completely forgot to celebrate Ed Sullivan day as proclaimed for June 22 by the governor's office to mark Sullivan's 10th anniversary as a TV star. . . A new record for visitors to the state capitol was set in May with an estimated 123,840 sightseers touring the building. In one week, May 19-25, 43 schools including five from out state went through the capitol.

Demand Is Big for Breeders That Can Produce Meat Hogs

20-25 Per Cent. Of Market Hogs Is Meaty Type

William E. Pugh
UM Extension Animal
Husbandry Specialist

It has been estimated that 20 to 25 per cent of the hogs going to market today are meaty ones. There is a great need for still more of the right kind. This in turn means that there is a great need and demand for breeding stock that will produce the meaty, good-doing hogs.

Over the state we have all the major breeds of hogs. We also have commercial hog men who want to use just one breed or several breeds, depending on the breeding program they have set up on their farms.

Within each breed of hogs we have some that are meaty and some that are not. We also have within each breed some strains that are good-doing, prolific, and efficient users of feed; and within each breed we have just the opposite of this. In fact, there are wider differences within breeds than there are between the good ones of the various breeds.

The problem then is to locate the good individuals and strains of the various breeds so that we can move faster in the production of meat hogs. We can't locate these good hogs just by looking at them. We have tried this and have made quite a few mistakes. We have picked hogs that looked pretty good, but when we used them they didn't turn out as we wanted them to. Pigs sired by some of the boars we have selected on looks alone have been short, fat pigs that did not gain fast and did not make economical use of their feed.

We are in the process now of setting up a swine evaluation station here at Columbia that should help us locate these better individuals and strains of each breed. Boars and barrow litter-mates from farms over the state will be tested for rate of gain and feed efficiency. A commercial man should be able to take this information and be in a better position to buy a boar that will better nick with the gilts and sows that he has at home.

For the purebred breeder the station should be an excellent way to find within his herd those sows and boars that are producing the really meaty, fast-gaining boars and gilts. With this information he should be able to do a better job of selection and thus be able to produce a better product to sell.

I think it should be pointed out that this station will not be able to test all the boars for sale in the state. This clearly points out that he station will not replace any of the present breed certification programs. In fact the station will only supplement those excellent programs that are now in operation.

The station will be run with advice and counsel of both commercial and purebred hog men from over the state. Operating policies and procedures and testing fees are now being worked out and will be announced in the near future. The site of the station at Columbia should prove to be good for breeders as to location and also good from the standpoint of personnel from the College of Agriculture will be assisting in the operation of the station.

Testing will not get underway until fall but breeders are urged to be giving some thought to the selection of those animals that they will want tested.

Let's test to find the best.

LOADING SPACE ADDED—Last winter increased loading space was provided by Herbert Stoermer of the Lake Creek community for his dairy cows by adding this pole constructed shed to the south side of his existing barn. The loading shed was extended to the milking parlor to give a sheltered holding pen. Hay will be stored to the ground in the barn. A strip of concrete ten feet wide is planned along the south side of the loading shed and extending over to the exit door in the milking parlor.

Sellers Again Scores High

Frank Sellers, local hog producer, took his entry in the KCMO Meat Type Hog contest a market at Kansas City last Friday. They were the first contest hogs to be delivered at either Kansas City or St. Joseph this year.

They weighed 197 pounds at 5 1/2 months and 37 graded No. 1, eight graded No. 2, and there were two placed as No. 3's. They brought $24.00 per hundred weight except the two No. 3's that sold at a lower price. Actually there were 55 pigs in the five litters but he had kept out eight No. 1 gilts from his best litters. This gave a total of 45 in the No. 1 grade.

Several members of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce committee and the county livestock committee looked the hogs over on Wednesday night. They graded them as 45 No. 1's and ten No. 2's, so came very close to the expert's at the yards. Members of this committee included William Shockey of Roseland Meats, and three farmers, Bruce Claycomb, and Cloyd Lettich of Hughesville, and J. F. Blackburn of Houstonia.

The Sedalia Chamber of Commerce has put up $50.00 in prizes for the five top places in a county contest. There are five other entries, but only one of them will be ready for market before the first of August.

What About Corn Borer

We held seven meetings on corn borer Friday with a total attendance of 57 people. That is an average of eight people per stop and we spent about an hour at each field. Only one of the seven fields was not seriously infested with the borers. Everyone attending was encouraged to pass the information to their neighbors.

The points we tried to cover were that infestation could be expected in corn that stands two feet tall or three feet tall when the leaves were extended. We showed them the leaf scars from the feeding of the little worms that indicated infestation and how to look for them in the stalk.

Damage expected to be done by the borers is a relative thing. The entomologists recommend spraying when 75 per cent of the stalks show leaf feeding scars. However, something might depend on the number of borers per stalk. One borer is supposed to reduce yields about three per cent while four or five might make it 10 to 15 per cent. The only danger is that one worm could cause the ear to drop off or the stalk to blow over or fall when the picker touched it.

We found practically no borers that had yet entered the stalks.

New Test Oat May Beat Old Rust Species

An experimental oat strain with resistance to some of the new races of crown rust was shown visitors at University of Missouri Soils and Crops Day recently.

The test oat is the result of a cross of Columbia and Marion varieties. University plant breeder J. M. Poehlman says it has shown high yields and good test weights so far and its seed quality is superior to Mo. 0-205.

Poehlman told Field Day visitors, "If the many new races of crown rust that invaded Missouri oat fields in 1957 continue to spread they'll cause a new alignment in recommended oat varieties for our state."

A new Minnesota oat variety, Minhafer, was also displayed on the 1958 tour. Poehlman says it Minhafer continues to yield as well this year as in past trials it'll be added to Missouri's list of recommended varieties.

Senate May Compromise On Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) said today he believes the Senate can work out this year a compromise long-range farm bill that will avoid another veto by President Eisenhower.

"We won't be able to give the Agriculture Department everything it wants but we should be able to work out something they can live with," the chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee said in an interview.

"It could be done and should be done," Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.), ranking GOP member of the farm committee, said in a separate interview.

"I'm not as optimistic as I was a few days ago but things could change," Aiken added.

He said lack of House action on separate farm surplus disposal and school milk program bills, passed by the Senate, "have cost our farmers some 300 to 500 million dollars in exports and may cost them as much as a billion dollars."

Instead, the House takes up this week an omnibus farm bill that has split its Agriculture Committee into warring factions.

The House bill contains several key farm programs—such as surplus disposal and extension of the milk programs—urged by the administration and a wide variety of proposals the administration has rejected in the past.

Among other things, the House bill proposes new three-year programs for cotton, wheat, rice, feed grains and milk. Farmers would have an option of keeping present programs or the new ones with higher price supports.

Indicated Senate strategy is to await House action on this package bill and then try to substitute the Senate provisions, regarded as more palatable to Secretary of Agriculture Benson and the president.

Ellender noted that the Senate has approved a 3 1/2 billion dollar increase in the program for overseas sale, barter and gift of farm surpluses and the federal school milk programs, which expire at the end of this month.

He said the new Senate bill probably would avoid major changes in the present wheat, tobacco, peanuts and dairy products programs.

September 5 Is Set For Annual Swine Day

Missouri swine industry men are asked to set aside September 5 for University of Missouri's second annual Swine Day.

Leland Tribble, University swine specialist, says the new swine evaluation program will be one of the main topics discussed at the September 5 event. The swine evaluation station is a recent act of the Missouri Legislature. In addition, the day will include latest reports on swine research projects underway at the University.

The date again for second annual University of Missouri Swine Day is September 5.

Open-Type Housing Is Most Inexpensive, Practical for Poultry

University of Missouri poultry specialists say open-type housing seems the most inexpensive and practical way to house birds in Missouri.

These poultrymen advise a low-cost poultry house with pole-frame construction, open on the south with a dirt or clay floor covered with sand or chat, and a straw loft.

For cool, cross-ventilation in summer poultry specialists suggest a window every two feet and a two foot drop panel along the north side of the house. In long buildings use a simple ridge-type ventilator above straw loft.

University of Missouri poultrymen have a new recommended housing plan stressing these and other points. This complete housing plan is available now at your county extension office.

Yanks Waken; Pound Tigers For 15 Runs

The Associated Press
Just when the Detroit pitching staff was to be knighted for outstanding service to the American League race, the Yankees woke up.

New York had scored only one run in 37 innings against baffling Tiger pitching and lost seven straight to Detroit. Then the Yanks cut loose yesterday with a 16-hit blast in a 15-0 rout.

Don Larsen had a two-hitter for his third shutout and sixth victory. After Billy Martin singled in the second, Larsen retired 16 Tiger batters in succession before Gail Harris singled in the seventh.

The second-place Kansas City Athletics topped Boston again 2-1 with the help of a game-saving catch by Hector Lopez on a drive by Jackie Jensen. Jack Urban outpitched Tom Brewer in a tight battle.

Cleveland broke out of a four-game losing streak by taking a pair from Washington 4-3 and 1-0. Minnie Minofo hit a home run in each game, deciding the second in favor of Jim Grant over Hal Griggs.

Baltimore climbed out of the cellar when Billy O'Dell turned in a six-hit shutout of Chicago 2-0, his eighth victory.

Sal Maglie, 41, returned to the old familiar National League surroundings and pitched St. Louis to a 2-1 edge over Milwaukee. San Francisco beat Philadelphia 5-4 in 14 innings on Willie Kirkland's home run.

Los Angeles took a double-header from Pittsburgh 4-1 and 3-2. Gus Bell's grand-slam homer gave Cincinnati a 6-2 opening victory over Chicago but the Cubs staged a three-run rally in the ninth to take the second 8-6.

The Yanks knocked out Billy Hoelt in the first inning when they scored six and went on another six-run binge in the eighth against Herb Moford and Vito Valentini. Gil McDougald had two doubles and a pair of singles. Tony Kubek three singles and Elston Howard a two-run homer and a double.

At Kansas City, Lopez dashed into right center to snare Jensen's drive in the eighth with Pete Runnels on third base and the score tied. Lopez's single scored the winning run in the last of the eighth, after Preston Ward and Bob Cerv singled.

Cleveland came up with three runs in the fifth inning to win the opener for Ray Narleski, his ninth, although Don Mossi finished up, Vic Power and Woody Held drove in the three runs. Minofo's 11th homer of the year in the sixth inning ruined Griggs' four-hit job in the second game.

Hope, Blair Matched For Benefit Golf

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Comedian Bob Hope and Missouri Gov. James T. Blair found themselves well matched in a benefit golf performance yesterday.

In quips, however, the governor was no match for Hope, who kept the crowd of 4,000 in laughter most of the way through 18 holes at old Warson Country Club, a rugged course which Hope called "Alcatraz with grass."

Hope finished with an 88, one stroke better than the governor. Pros E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Dave Douglas each shot a 71, two under par. Proceeds of the match went to heart patients at St. Louis Children's Hospital.

Hope's first drive was a good one and he put the ball on the green with his second shot. The comedian, in pink and white shirt, yellow trousers and red and black shoes, turned and announced, "I'm going home."

On the 13th hole, the governor's shot went into the crowd, and Hope warned him to "watch out for the voters."

Great as a highball!

Sal Rewarded With Victory Over Braves

The Associated Press
Sal Maglie wasn't kidding when he said, "I'll show 'em."

The 41-year-old right-hander was peeved when the New York Yankees shunted him to St. Louis June 14 to make room for a 39-year-old man—Virgil Trucks.

Freddie Hutchinson, Sal's new boss with the Cardinals, gave The Barber a starting chance yesterday against Milwaukee and was rewarded with a 2-1 victory.

Maglie showed signs of weariness in the sixth and seventh so Hutch sent up Irv Noren to bat for him in the eighth inning. Larry Jackson, a workhorse both on relief and starting, retired the last six Braves in a row.

The defeat cut the Braves' National League lead to 1½ games as San Francisco beat the Phillies 5-4 in 14 innings on a homer by Willie Kirkland. The Giants also led their second game 1-0 when it was suspended in the sixth by the Sunday curfew. It will be completed later.

Cincinnati, St. Louis and Pittsburgh are bunched in third place 3½ games behind the Braves. Cincinnati split with Chicago, winning the first on Gus Bell's grand-slam homer 6-2. The Cubs staged a three-run rally in the ninth to take the second game 8-6.

Steve Bilko and Johnny Klippstein, two recently acquired Los Angeles Dodgers, helped the cellar team win a double-header from Pittsburgh 4-1 and 3-2. Klippstein's relief work saved the first game, in which two singles by Dick Gray played a prominent part. Bilko's 10th-inning pinch single scored Joe Pignatano from second base for the second decision.

In the American League, the New York Yankees beat Detroit 15-0 after losing seven straight to the Tigers. Don Larsen cooled off Detroit with two singles for his third shutout. Kansas City edged Boston 2-1 on a game-saving catch by Hector Lopez, who then singled to drive in the winning run. Cleveland took two from Washington 4-2 and 1-0. Baltimore pulled out of the cellar on Billy O'Dell's six-hit job against Chicago 2-0.

Maglie fielded the Braves to five hits in seven innings in a duel with 22-year-old Joey Jay. Two walks by Jay and Ken Boyer's double produced the Cardinal runs in the third.

Willie Mays rejoined the Giants but it was Kirkland, just recalled Saturday from Phoenix, who hit the big blow. Kirkland's homer broke up a tight relief battle between Johnny Antonelli and Ray Semproch.

The Dodgers showed tight defensive play while the Pirates made two costly errors in the first game, in which Bob Friend was chased for the first time in his career for arguing umpire Vic Delmonor's calling on balls and strikes.

After Bell's homer won the opener, for Cincinnati, the Cubs came back on a 13-hit attack, roughing up relief pitcher Hal Jeffcoat in the ninth.

New York Strong Man Tops in Weight Lifting

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An amazing little strong man from York, Pa., snatched a world's record from Russia in the National AAU weightlifting championships.

Isaac Berger, who weighs 132, hoisted a total of 800 pounds in three lifts, Saturday night. This broke the record in his weight class of 796 pounds, set last year by the Soviet Union's Mineav.

Bill to Oust Farm System Put Forward

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to abolish the major league baseball farm system and ban uncontrolled broadcasting of big league games was put forward today by Rep. Albert W. Cretella (R-Conn.).

He referred to these activities as "the worst type of sports monopoly."

Cretella announced he will back these and other legislative steps to clarify the antitrust status of professional baseball, football, basketball and hockey when the House begins debating sports antitrust exemptions tomorrow.

Cretella's bill also would exempt from the antitrust laws the player reserve clause, player contracts, club territorial rights, expansion and formation of playing leagues, draft and waiver rules, and assignment of player contracts.

The House Judiciary Committee has approved a bill to exempt professional sports from the antitrust laws where their actions are considered "reasonable and necessary" to continuation of the game.

Under Cretella's bill, major league baseball clubs would be specifically forbidden to broadcast and televise their games into minor league cities when minor league clubs are playing there, unless permission is granted first.

Cretella said his bill would abolish outright the major league farm system after Jan. 1, 1960, by forbidding any major league club to own a minor league team directly or indirectly.

Gibson Asserts She Shall Beat C. Truman

WIMBLEDON (AP)—"Make no mistake," said Althea Gibson of New York, "I shall win the next time I play Christine Truman. That's all I've got to say. I shall win."

Miss Gibson was giving a post-time message as the stars lined up for the biggest tennis show on earth — the 72nd Wimbledon championship opening today.

The 1957 Wimbledon women's champion appeared completely unshaken by her Wightman Cup defeat nine days ago at the hands of the gangling Miss Truman, who at 17 is Britain's brightest tennis prospect.

"You may say," she said, "that my confidence is pretty good. Don't expect me to go into any match in this tournament reckoning to lose."

Miss Gibson is seeded No. 1. Miss Truman No. 2. If seedings follow form they'll meet in the finals July 5.

Today's opening program consisted of 64 men's singles matches.

Ashley Cooper, favorite for the men's title, had the honor of opening the tournament on the ivy clad center court. He was expected to

Druggist's Son Wins Amateur Golf Tourney

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, cocky young son of a Columbus, Ohio, druggist, won the Trans-Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament yesterday with a 9 and 8 victory over Richard Norville of Oklahoma City.

It wasn't much of a match. Nicklaus, 18, smacked the ball 300 to 325 yards down the fairways—usually 20 to 50 yards farther than Norville—and followed up with good putts to outplay his opponent.

He had five birdies, while Norville failed to shoot under regulation, and he parred six holes on which Norville was one over. The Ohioan shot the last 20 holes in even par, and he was only three over regulation for the 28 holes it took to defeat the Oklahoman.

Nobody in the tournament toured the 35-35-70 Prairie Dunes Country Club course in less than par.

walk off court some 30 minutes later the victor over Geoff Owen, a little known English player.

Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio—America's only seed for the men's singles—went into action on court 2. He played Emilio Martinez of Spain.

Larson Pitches 2-Hitter; Fans Feel Anticlimax

DETROIT (AP)—Everything is anticlimactic for Don Larsen. Try as he does the New York Yankee right-hander undoubtedly never will repeat his miracle of Oct. 8, 1956.

That was the memorable day he pitched the first perfect game in World Series history.

He came pretty close to pitching another no-hitter yesterday. The Detroit Tigers collected only two singles off the no-windup pitcher as he blanked them 15-0. It was his third shutout of the season.

Unlike that sunny day in Yankee Stadium, there was no suspense. Billy Martin, who was on Larsen's side in the perfect game, touched him for a line drive single in the second. Larsen retired the next 16 batters before Gail Harris grounded a single through the infield in the seventh.

Only three other Tigers reached base. Larsen walked the first two batters to face him in the first and issued another pass in the eighth.

"No, I don't think it was my best since the no-hitter," Larsen said. "I've had better stuff in other games."

FONDI, Italy (AP)—The Catholic landlady who bricked up her Protestant minister tenant said with a sigh today that maybe her offensive had backfired.

But Mrs. Gemma Rasile said she still was not finished with the Rev. Umberto Righetti, an evangelist of the First Church of Christ.

The minister rents two second-floor rooms from Mrs. Rasile and uses them as his residence and church. The landlady, living on the ground floor, objected to his Protestant flock trooping through her quarters. Early last month, armed with court permission, she had bricklayers seal up the only door to the preacher's rooms.

For three days the Rev. Mr. Righetti hauled his groceries up through his window in a bucket and preached to his followers gathered in the street below. Then Mrs. Rasile relented and had the door unbricked. The minister resumed services in his rooms.

Because of the publicity, Mrs. Rasile said, the evangelist now has "quite a few more followers than before."

"However, I believe he has increased his flock with only temporary followers who will leave him when the sensation quiets down," she said, adding ruefully: "I must admit he had my unwilling cooperation in surrounding himself with sensation."

The landlady insisted she had only given the preacher a four-month reprieve.

"He must find a new apartment in that time," she declared. "Therefore, I will have to tolerate him and his followers only until September. He will have to get out then—or I will have the door closed forever."

The town council in Aylmer, Quebec, Canada, imposes a fine on parents of children under 16 years of age who are found on the streets after 9 p.m.

Graham Goes To Battle In Ball Stadium

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Graham, styling himself "the messenger boy for Christ," went to bat against the Devil yesterday before 38,000 partisan fans at Seals Stadium.

The North Carolina evangelist ended his San Francisco crusade in the midst of an overflow crowd jammed into the 25,900-seat baseball park, home of the National League Giants.

"I knew Willie Mays could fill Seals Stadium," he said from atop a platform at second base, "but I'm glad God can do it too."

"I am only the messenger boy for Christ. Give God the glory for what has been done this day."

Baseball was in the air before the sermon, with the Giants locked in an extra-inning battle with Philadelphia in the Pennsylvania city. San Francisco Mayor George Christopher eased the tension with a brief announcement: "Kirkland hit a home run in the 14th inning and the Giants won."

Turning to Graham, the mayor said, "All of us are so much better off for having had him in our midst," and expressed belief the world should try morality for a change.

"We need moral and spiritual values," Christopher said. "We've tried everything else to find peace."

Graham, who last week concluded his seven-week San Francisco crusade, made a plea against backsliding.

To those who have made so-called "decision for Christ," he said, "Do not go back to your old

Leave Money in Car; Gone Upon Returning

DETROIT (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Schmuck of London, Ont., came to Detroit to see the Tigers play baseball.

The Schmucks said they were afraid to leave behind the $2,300 they had saved so they put it in a suitcase and brought it along. They left the suitcase in their car, which was parked on the street.

When they returned, the car had been broken into and the suitcase and money were gone.

ways of living or yield to temptations and old idolatries."

Some 1,354 stepped forward in "decisions" yesterday. They were part of a crowd topping by some 12,000 Graham's best attendance in the 16,400-seat Cow Palace, where his regular services were held.

The Baptist preacher, facing an oversized beer glass painted on a stadium signboard, told the crowd, "We should have a new outlook. We have responsibilities to our neighbors and must take a new attitude toward the racial question."

Church workers throughout the area will visit homes in an intensive follow-up to Graham's crusade, which moves on to Sacramento, Calif., next Sunday. A tour of California will follow.

At Least Ten Killed As Train Runs Away, Crashes Into Station

ORIZABA, Mexico (AP)—At least 10 persons were killed and 20 injured when a runaway electric train crashed into a crowded railway station yesterday at Maltrata Point, near Orizaba.

Searchers combed through the wreckage, and some 25 persons were reported unaccounted for.

The electric train, on a regular run from Orizaba to the Gulf Coast port of Veracruz, apparently was stopped by a power shortage. Officials of the government railway said when power returned, the train started up automatically and raced three miles out of control.

Preliminary investigation indicated the brakes failed. Witnesses reported the crew tried desperately to dump sand on the tracks in an effort to halt the speeding train. Passengers leaped from the cars as they hurtled toward the station.

The reserved, gray-haired monarch will be guest of the Bohemian Club for lunch today, at the palace of the Legion of Honor for dinner tonight, and again for lunch tomorrow aboard the liner President Hoover.

During his stay, the 39-year-old Shah is occupying a five-room room suite at the Mark Hopkins Hotel with gold doorknobs and gold bathroom fixtures.

Auto Makers, UAW Official Talks Resume

DETROIT (AP) — Auto makers and the United Auto Workers went back into contract negotiations today with both sides acting as if time was on their side.

The UAW had talks scheduled with each of the Big Three of the industry—Ford, Chrysler and General Motors.

It has been almost a month since the union's contracts with the auto makers expired and workers went to their jobs without a union contract for the first time in more than 15 years. But neither sides acts as if it is pressed for time.

Nevertheless, the UAW spent a busy weekend moving among and file members to drum up support for strike votes.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, has said repeatedly he has no intention of calling a strike. The reason is the tremendous backlog of unsold cars. Car makers could go a month or more without making a single car and still feel no pinch.

But Reuther is keeping a sharp eye on the backlog as it dwindles. When the contracts expired last month the industry had about 85,000 unsold cars. Now, with production curtailed, it has less than 700,000.

Strike votes already have been taken in some plants. Others are scheduled for this week and more are set for July.

Reuther's confidence may come from the belief the auto makers will be more fearful of a strike after production starts on 1959 models in late summer.

The auto companies appear to believe Reuther will trim his demands rather than strike.

Birds Break Circuit; Explosion Is Loud

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Police feared burglars were at work when a loud explosion was heard in the downtown area near two banks yesterday.

The police surrounded the banks, but found nothing. Summoned officials of the two banks found nothing amiss.

Then a patrolman spotted an open circuit-breaker fuse on an overhead power line at the rear of the banks. Bert Mills, an electric company employee, gave this explanation:

Some birds used light strands of copper wire to build a nest in the circuit-breaker. A breeze apparently blew the loose ends of the copper wires against the high tension wires, setting off a 14,400-volt blast.

The birds and the nest couldn't be found after the explosion.

Cancer Group Chided For Flaunting Dollars

DALLAS (AP)—While cigarette smoke wafted up from the audience, the American Cancer Society's Dallas unit was chided yesterday "for flaunting the million dollars spent on the study of lung cancer."

"Nothing makes me angrier than to watch a person take a puff," said Dr. Robert J. Samp of the cancer research staff at the University of Wisconsin Medical Center, "and smile and say, 'Well, if I'm gonna go, it's a wonderful way to go.'"

"He will go, all right, and there's an excellent possibility the way will not be wonderful," he said.

Dedication This Week Of Mackinac Bridge

STRAITS OF MACKINAC BRIDGE, Mich. (AP)—The Straits of Mackinac Bridge, five miles of steel and concrete that connects Upper and Lower Michigan, will be dedicated this week.

The formal ceremonies will be held Saturday in the midst of a festive celebration planned for the area.

Airplanes, marching men, aerial bombs, beauty queens, bands, horses, floats and politicians are on the program for the three-day celebration.

Three and a half years in the building, the bridge is the longest single-span structure in the world.

Shakes Off Measles; Actress to Give Play

HOUSTON (AP)—Actress Diana Barrymore, shaking off a case of what doctors termed the old-fashioned measles, scheduled a special performance tonight of "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."

Usually no Monday performances are scheduled at the Avalon Theater but since matinees Saturday and yesterday were canceled, producer George Marks said the Tennessee Williams play would be given again tonight.

Doctors said the fever that struck the actress Friday has subsided.

Miss Jackie Wilson Installed As Queen of Job's Daughters

Miss Jackie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, was installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 15, International Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday, June 11, at the Masonic Temple.

The installation took place before a beautiful setting with white backdrop on which were red roses. In front were white picket fences entwined with ivy and red roses. Extending from the tops of the backdrop were rows of red and white crepe paper which formed the sky of the setting. From these rows of crepe paper was a white strip of paper on which large red letters with silver glitter spelled out "Jackie".

Rita Napier, retiring queen, was installing officer. Other installing officers were: Mrs. Bernice Bacon Gloth, P.H.Q., as guide; Miss Donna Ruth Anderson, P.H.Q., as marshal; Mrs. Sue McNeely Englund, P.H.Q., as chaplain; Miss Kay Wanda White, P.H.Q., as junior custodian; Miss Karen Crosslin, P.H.Q., as haplain; miss Kay Satterwhite, P.H.Q., as recorder; Miss Kay Richardson, P.H.Q., as flag bearer and Miss Marilyn Goldman as musician.

Miss Diane Graham and Miss Mildred Reed were candlelighters. Miss Sharon Vedder presented the Bible and was assisted by nine girls in white robes who formed a cross east of the altar as Kenny Williams sang: "The Lord's Prayer." Following the presentation of the flag the following officers were installed: Jackie Wilson, honored queen; Vickie Hunnell, senior princess; Suanne Joy, guide, and Kay Williams, marshal.

Appointed officers were: Sandra Crow, outer guard; Mary Van Winkle, inner guard; Dorothy Chamberlin, recorder; Vivian Rowels, treasurer; Delores Gwinn, chaplain; Janet Hamilton, librarian; Marjorie McKinney, musician; Kay Jacobie, junior custodian; Carol Sue Williams, senior custodian; Alice Lee Vogel, first messenger; Mimi Silverman, second messenger; Trudy Harlan, third messenger; Sue Rader, fourth messenger; Kathy Peabody, fifth messenger; Marilyn Lowe, soloist and Linda Fisher, flag bearer.

Judy Gardner, who was to have been installed as junior princess, was unable to attend because of illness.

Pro-tem are: Bonnie Fisher, outer guard; Nanette Yancey, inner guard; Karen McMullen, recorder; Nancy Garrigus, treasurer; Donna Trueman, chaplain; Linda Reed, librarian; Donna Nave, musician; Judy Scott, junior custodian; Becky DeWitte, senior custodian; Barbara Arnold, first messenger; Diana Plough, second messenger; Peggy Welch, third messenger; Sondra Williams, fourth messenger; Sharon Greene, fifth messenger; Mildred Reed, soloist and Sharon Fisher, flag bearer.

Kenny Williams sang: "If I Could Tell You" to the honored queen, after Rusty Coons presented Jackie with her bouquet of red roses.

The 9 o'clock interpolation was given by the DeMolays. Charles Lawrence, master counselor, was assisted by Jim Gwinn and Larry Reed.

Jewell Nave, associate guardian, presented Rita Napier with her past honored queen's pin, after which Kenny Williams sang: "Any Where You Wander" to Rita.

Later Rita was asked to approach the east. At this time she was assisted by Miss Suanne Joy, Miss Kay Williams, Miss Vickie Hunnell and Miss Joann Patrick. Each girl had a red rose with a wish attached to it. When they finished reading their wish they placed the roses in a wishing well which was then presented to Jackie.

Introductions for Jackie's family and escorts were held. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Charlene and Jim; Mrs. Everett Coons, Rusty and Linda; Mrs. Alice Moore; past honored queens, Miss Kay Satterwhite, Mrs. Bernice Bacon Gloth, Miss Kay Richardson, Miss Donna Ruth Anderson, Mrs. Sue McNeely Englund; and Miss Karen Crosslin, who is also grand honored queen of Missouri; Grand Bethel officers and Grand Bethel representatives, donna Nave, grand representative to Pennsylvania; Janet Hamilton, grand representative to Idaho; Suanne Joy, grand representative to Michigan; Jackie Wilson, grand representative to British Columbia and Vickie Hunnell, grand representative to Colorado.

Produce Clerk Charges With Slaying Women

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A near-literate produce clerk has been charged with the June slaying of two women in a downtown bar.

He is Salvatore Ciluffo, 27, who police said, made an oral admission of the double shooting, heard it read back to him and approved it.

Police said Ciluffo told them he shot the two women when, after spending $75 on drinks for them, one refused to go out with him. The other, he said, "got sassy with me."

The circuit attorney's office has issued murder warrants against Ciluffo in the killings of Mrs. Virginia (Patsy) Haney, 29, and Mrs. Jo Ann Yates, 22.

A barmaid at the tavern, who identified Ciluffo in a police lineup, told police the women were hired to solicit drinks. The owner denied it.

Police arrested Ciluffo on a tip from an informant.

One of the women was shot in the booth in which she was sitting and the other as she was running for a front door.
